ROBLOX has also been criticised for lacking any kind of quality assurance for its games. There have been many issues with the quality of some games and many users have complained that their game descriptions are not accurate. The site is also frustratingly inconsistent in the manner it deals with things like this, often banning users who complain about bugs and glitches within their games but not actually banning anyone who commits an illegal act, such as copying someone else's game and selling it without permission.

There are a number of settings in your account that can be changed, including your e-mail address, password, birthday, username, and the overall look of your account. You can also add a picture or video to your profile. However, you cannot change the color of your name (unless you join up for a Builders Club subscription), nor the overall color scheme. ROBLOX offers ten different color schemes that players can choose from; these include Gold, Green, Blue, Black & Red and many more. Due to the nature of ROBLOX's game engine, players need to be able to manipulate various graphical elements by using the in-game tools provided by ROBLOX. These tools include resizing, rotating, and moving various objects and creating texture maps. It can be used in the creation of 3D games, but the game must be made using a 2D game maker such as Game Maker or Flash itself.

Roblox was created by a company called Ellation. According to Wikipedia, Ellation is a gaming production company based in San Francisco, California. They started out with games that were mainly for children but now have many different types of games in which you can play with your friends and family. Some of the games have mini-games where you can buy special items or earn coins in order to unlock new areas or items. The idea behind robux is that players can earn robux by playing and participating in the game universe. With this system, players do not need to spend money on anything; they just collect more robux as they play in the game. Robux is the virtual currency of Roblox and can be bought in packages or earned in-game.

Over the years, ROBLOX has used advertising to generate revenue for their company, which they generate through in-game purchases (microtransactions) or advertisements (which can be annoying for the players). In addition to this, they also generate revenue through selling virtual items (like the aforementioned Builders Club and ROBLOX Credit). The company has also released several games like their top grossing game "Build a Buddy". ROBLOX has been criticized for its lack of funding from advertisers as well as allowing other companies to make games on ROBLOX. The company has been criticized for their children friendly ads which are designed to be easily visible by children but are very inappropriate for them which is seen as a breach of the COPPA (Children's Online Privacy Protection Act) and their end user license agreement, although ROBLOX has since changed its policy. The company also uses an "Ads on the Web" program where they can serve certain types of ads depending upon a player's age and location.

There also used to be a filter for chat, which blocked any text that contained profanity. However, this feature was removed due to community feedback stating that it should be up to players if they want profanity in their chat.
