In June 2021, ROBLOX introduced their simplified privacy policy and terms of service. Under this policy, all private chats were deleted upon logging out.[4] However, any game-related chats will remain in-game. Users are able to delete their own game-related chats, but deleting a chat does not automatically delete the messages or comments within that chat.

If you don't want to take this serious then stop reading now, but if you want to see what I'm talking about, continue reading. You might feel a little confused about what I'm trying to say but I'll explain it further below.

Roblox has been criticized by parents and others for its age-inappropriate nature, and for encouraging bullying. Some players have reported being bullied while in the game, due to language or other factors. Many of these players have been reported to take their complaints to Roblox's customer service team, only to be ignored or told that it was the victim's fault. It is also reported that the staff are biased towards certain users due to friendship rather than any sort of immorality on their parts.

Roblox has been accused of being an unprofitable company that does not pay royalties to its players. One of the users who quit Roblox because of this issue is a user named "Ezthero," a former moderator for ROBLOX's forums. Some others have also left the website after they learned that ROBLOX would get more money from their games if they did not sell them. However, Roblox has said that they do pay royalties to their users but only to those with large fanbases who are able to earn a lot from their games.

On February 16th, 2021, ROBLOX's main Twitter account was hacked by a group that goes by the name "RIP Roblox." This prompted some users to make spam on the forums. The group also hacked ROBLOX's official Twitch page. They claimed to be doing this because they found a security glitch that allows them to bypass site security and touch other people's accounts to steal their virtual currency.[19] They later stated that they were done with their attack and did not release the method of how they were able to bypass ROBLOX's security, as ROBLOX did not provide them with any compensation.

Rated 5 out of 5 by Anonymous from Charming Roblox is so charming, even though I am 11 years old I still love this game. My sister is 8 years old, and she also loves this game. She plays roblox more than me. We always play it together, and we sometimes even make a little brother character named Blox. Every night we would ask our mom if we could play roblox longer, because we didn't want to stop. I love the update where when you or your friends spell a word, something pops up in the middle of the screen to tell you the number of letters in that word. The only thing I think is bad about this game is that you have to have headphones on if you want to move around, and since I usually play with headphones in it makes it harder for every one else to hear what my sister is saying (but they can still hear her). I love this game so much. I would definitely recommend it to my friends.

The game is not very challenging. Even though there are a lot of games available on it, there isn't much in the way of difficulty. This is a big negative in my opinion - especially for older kids who love to face tough challenges such as some video games on the market now which can sometimes be really difficult and where you have to wait for many hours in order to even pass the game. This might be a problem if you are playing with smaller children - some games on roblox are known to last for days or weeks before they finish. My 6 year old absolutely loves roblox and games like this are great for that age group. If you're looking to play with kids older than that then I'd suggest looking at something else. There is some violence in the game, but nothing major (for example you can only fight by swinging a sword or shooting a gun, rather than hand to hand fighting) and it's all in the context of a game. Overall we love it and it was worth the money!
